

Put your food or wine tourism business on the map

For the first time, the Queensland Government is bringing together its food, wine and beverage tourist destinations across the State into one comprehensive regional touring atlas.

Queensland food and beverage manufacturers and wineries that offer a unique tourism experience are invited to apply for free entry in the publication.

To find out more about this great opportunity and to view the eligibility criteria visit www.food.qld.gov.au or contact the Food and Wine Industry Development unit on (07) 3224 2009.

Applications close Friday 28 August 2009.

Queensland Government